Value Exchange Corporation Recognized by NPC for “Rookie” Excellence

Nashville, TN—Value Exchange Corporation is pleased to announce that it was recently selected by the National Processing Company (NPC), as one of only four new client relationships for NPC during the past year chosen for the 2011 Circle of Excellence, awarded for sales and service excellence. A total of 17 companies are being honored with the Circle of Excellence designation, selected from NPC’s current client base of over 500 payment processors nationwide.

Value Exchange will be recognized, along with the other Circle of Excellence winners at ceremonies to be conducted March 25-28th at the Fontainebleau Resort, in Miami Beach, Florida.

“Value Exchange places great importance on finding new ways to further improve the electronic payment choices we can provide to our clients,” says Brian L. Cooper, President and Chief Executive Officer, Value Exchange Corporation. “By joining forces with NPC, we are able to offer enhanced products and streamlined operational processes for our merchant clients, while also providing greater value through significant annual cost savings. As such, our NPC offerings have been very popular with our clients and we are honored at receiving this unexpected recognition from NPC.
